

Prayer of Confession

God of mercy, we confess that we rely on our own wisdom rather than on yours; we trust our own strength instead of your holy power. We are surprised to find that we are foolish and weak and try to hide the truth from ourselves, from others, and from you. Forgive us that we might trust in your goodness alone, and relying on your power, seek to do your will, doing justice, showing mercy, and walking humbly with you. Amen. (Silent Confession) Amen.

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth; and in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell, the third day He arose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body and the life everlasting. Amen.

God's foolishness is wiser than human wisdom and God's weakness is stronger than human strength.
God, who is the source of our life in Jesus Christ, calls us not because of our skill or worth but because of God's great love.
As spoken in the house of Israel, God speaks to our house:
Seek me and live.
